

1. Hayward 2. Albany 3. Richmond 4. Concord 5. Albany 6. Richmond 7. Sequoia 8. Concord 9. Alameda
10. Berkeley 11. Alameda

ALAMEDA

The Highlanders looked strong in trouncing Alameda 24 to 0, using every man on the bench in doing so. The Highlanders scored in the first period when Hamlin, scooping up a punt blocked by Witter, ran to a touchdown. In the second period, McCann sent a pass to Hogan on the sixteen-yard line, and Witter went over four plays later. A short march was ended in the third period when Wallace scored from three yards out. McCann threw a thirty-five yard pass to Lorbeer, who went over for the final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Peterson, Kilburn, Thomas, and Turman, who are all returning next year, showed a great deal of promise when they took the place of injured varsity linemen. Taylor, at center, who played more minutes during the season than anyone else on the team, completed another fine game.

HAYWARD

In a game featuring a surprise play by Hayward, Piedmont was forced to come from behind to defeat a hard-fighting Farmer eleven. Witter scored in the first and second quarters previous to Hogan's thirty-five yard run and pass interception. Rutledge converted after both touchdowns.

ALBANY

The Clansmen showed good power in defeating a scrappy Albany eleven 25 to 0. Hogan and Rutledge each scored a touchdown in the first quarter after brief marches. Witter scored in both the third and fourth periods, Otto converting the latter. Muller, Bradford, and McNeill shared in the blocking of four of Albany's kicks.